Q J3: As you may or may not know, the Augusta National Golf Club is a private golf club in Augusta, Georgia that hosts the Masters Golf Tournament each year. The club, which currently offers membership to only one gender, does not receive any government funding or taxpayer money. The club has recently been urged by some organizations to change its membership policy to include members of both genders, but so far has not done so. Do you agree or disagree with Augusta's decision to not change their membership policy based on pressure from outside organizations?

Q J3: As you may or may not know, the Augusta National Golf Club is a private golf club in Augusta, Georgia that hosts the Masters Golf Tournament each year. The club, which currently offers membership to only one gender, does not receive any government funding or taxpayer money. The club has recently been urged by some organizations to change its membership policy to include members of both genders, but so far has not done so. Do you agree or disagree with Augusta's decision to not change their membership policy based on pressure from outside organizations?
